School to Business: Bridge the Gap

With the gap between schools and business getting ever wider this new project sees Culture Shift join forces with Eastbourne Education Business Partnership to offer young people and businesses an opportunity to work together in order to understand and develop skills for the work place.

Working through Eastbourne & District Chamber of Commerce and Brighton & Hove Chamber of Commerce The EEBP are launching a pilot scheme for 4 businesses; 2 in Eastbourne and 2 in Brighton & Hove, to set a professional brief that identifies a specific need of their business. A team of young people from their local school in collaboration with a creative expert, highly skilled in the project's specialism, will develop and deliver to the requirements of this brief.
