Shaping Tomorrow's Retailers

Sussex Downs College in partnership with Metamorphosis have created an exciting range of short courses in Eastbourne aimed at the independent retailer.

Metamorphosis, based in Nutley, specialise in maximising retail sales potential by delivering creative, yet practical high quality training and development solutions, ideas and retail concepts to the independent retail sector.

Branded under the Metaclass tag these four hour Master classes offer a new dynamic concept for the sector providing specific consultancy training across a broad range of key topics.

The Cross Levels Way campus in Eastbourne will be hosting the first half day series which will run from 9am till 1pm. Topics will include selling and serving on Tuesday 27 September and Tuesday 4 October. Visual merchandising on Thursday 13 October and window dressing on Tuesday 18 October.

EXPORTING – Where Do I Start?

A new half-day interactive workshop for businesses considering exporting for the first time.

This free workshop is designed for businesses that have not exported their products or services before, or only fulfil the occasional overseas order, and now want to look at whether they should make exporting part of their business strategy and how to take their first steps to do so.
